LOCAL NEWS.

For this district warmer southerly winds and fair weather.

THE WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE CONVENTION, Mrs. W. H. Pleasants, of Richmond, President, met in the M. E. Church South in this city at 7:30 o'clock last night, and the meeting was opened with prayer in which several city ministers par-ticipated, after which the executive committee met, and after arranging some pre-liminaries the convention adjourned to meet in Trinity M. E. Church at nine o'clock this morning. Upon the opening of the conven-tion to day Rev. Mr. Edwards conducted the devotional exercises, after which several statements of an encouraging nature showing the results of the work of the Union were made. Miss Lena Kern, of Winches ter, was elected secretary, and Mrs. Fultz, of Staunton, assistant do, after which a committee on credentials was appointed. The address of welcome to the delegates was made by Rev. Mr. Smithson, of the M. E. Church South, and was of an appropriate character. In the course of his address Mr. Smithson spoke of woman's place in the church, which, he said, is acknowledged by all, and she cannot be dispensed with. The women make up the greater part of the church, and much of the work of it devolves upon them. The woman's missionary socities of the different ecclesiastical bodies eties of the different ecclesiastical bodies furnish proof of this, as also the temperance work in this and other fields. In conclusion he welcomed the delegates as Christian women in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. the response given by Mrs. Cosmelia Hughes of Lincoln, Va., was of a graceful and happy nature. She said she felt a thrill of pleasure, in being welcomed to this old town, famed for its people of gentle blood both of the fire engines responded to the and refused manners. She spoke of the alarm. work in which the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was engaged, and while de-ploring the slowness of the march toward victory was cheerful and hopeful of the eventual success she predicted would yet crown the efforts of the organization. "Igmy of the cause for which she labored. Not only of the cause for which she labored. Not ness sort, the class who back a realization of the fact that our responsibilities are measured by the needs about part of the subject. of the fact that our responsibilities are measured by the needs about us." At the conclusion of Mrs. Hughes's address Miss Frances Willard, President of the National Union, spoke in commendation of several publications which were printed in the cause of temperance and recommended. them to the favorable consideration of the convention, and after Bible readings and singing the convention adjourned till 3 clock this afternoon.

INSTALLATION.—Last night Past Supreme Grand Chancellor J. H. Rathbone, the founder of the Knights of Pythias, under an escort of a delegation of members of Orienescort of a delegation of members of Oriental Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, paid a fraternal visit to Mechanics Lodge, No. 3, the occasion being the installation of the officers for the ensuing term of the latter lodge. When the time arrived for the installation D. D. Geo. B. Deeton, of Mechanical Latter lodge, when the time arrived for Mechanical Latter lodge, when the state of the latter lodge was a latter longer than the logger of Mechanical Latter longer longer latter longer longer latter latter latter longer latter latt ics Lodge, stated that he had requested P. S. G. C. Rathbone to install the officers. Brother Rathbone after taking the C. C. chair made a few very appropropriate remarks and then appointed Brothers George Duffey, A. F. Cox, and Wm. Baker, of Oriental Lodge, Grand Prelate, G. K. of R. and S., and G. M. A. The following officers and S. and G. M. A. The following officers were then installed in Mechanics Lodge: P. C., O. F. Baggett; C. C., George W. Bontz; V. C., George Germann: Prelate, J. S. Strider; M. of G., Daniel Webster; M. of F., V. C. Moore; K. of R. and S., Job Carson; M. A., Geo. B. Deeton; I. G., Wm. Barnett; O. G., Jno. B. Poss. Alternates, R. Roland, Jno. Travers and Jno. T. Harrison. After the ceremony, which was very impressive, was over, under the head of "good of the order," speeches were made by {Brothers Duffey, Cox. Harper, Baker, Bartlett, Norriss, and others of Oriental Lodge and Brothers Corson, Webster, Bontz, Germann, Strider, and others of Mechanics Germann, Strider, and others of Mechanics Lodge, and a very interesting and instruc-tive address upon the beauties and benefits of Pythianism by P. S. G. C., Rathbone.

DECISION .- Justice Cox yesterday in the Washington court in general term delivered the opinion of the court in the case of the Alexandria Canal, Bridge and Railroad Company against the District of Columbia. The latter assessed and claimed a lien upon the piers of the company's bridge for $20,-000 arrears in taxes, and the company sought to restrain its collection, claiming that it was illegal. The court declares that the tax liens for the years 1880 to 1887 to be null and void, and perpetually enjoins the District from selling the property of the company on account of the tax liens, and from setting up in any manner the tax liens and assessments, or attempting to collect or enforce the same or any part thereof. An appeal to the United States Supreme Court has been allowed.

DISCHARGED .- Judge James Keith, of the Circuit Court, in chambers, last night, on the appeal of A, Ward to the judgment of the County Court of Alexandria county, sentencing him to jail for four months on an indictment charging a felony, reversed the decision of the County Court, sustained the defendant's motion in arrest of judgment and discharged the prisoner. The Judge held that four regular terms of the County Court had elapsed without the prisoner having had a trial, after he had been in-dicted, and that he is forever exempted from prosecution for this offence. Ward was represented by Messrs. Stuart and Greene and the Commonwealth by Mr. Edmund Burke.

COUNTY COURT—Judge D. M. Chichester presiding.—Joseph Lipscomb and Richard Simmons, indicted yesterday by the grand jury, one for malicious assault and the other for malicious shooting, surrendered themselves to the court, and gave bond for their appearance before a magistrate for a preliminary hearing.

Dr. James E. Woodruff, who was yesterday appointed a Justice of the Peace for Washington magisterial district, appeared and qualified by taking the oath of office.

The case of Crossman vs. Capehart was continand until the next term of court.

The heirs of Mary Hall vs. Dr. James Mackall; ejectment; jury and case in progress.

PAYING OFF.-The employees of the C. and O canal are being paid for the month of November last. This payment will distribute about $10,000 among the canal employes. The December pay-roll is still due, but it is expected will be paid in a few weeks, thus closing up the entire indebted-ness of the canal for 1886, excepting interest on coupons past due. In the event of the soft-coal pool making satisfactory arrangements, rates on the canal will be increased so as to enable the company to pay all its yearly liabilities, including interest on repair bonds of 1878.

PERSONAL - Judge S. G. Staples, of Patrick county, is visiting his niece, Mrs. J. T. Cox, on upper King street.

THE BRADDOCK HOUSE .- Major Luck has re sived information from Alexandria that the owners of the Braddock House have City Council will be held to night. agreed to ac ept his proposition and terms for the lease of the Braddock House, and expects to take charge in a short time. We oxpects to take charge in a short time. We will fling an old shoe after the Major when he leaves or shower him with rice at any time that is appropriate.—Frederic'sburg will be abundant this season and fish cheap.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY.—Mr. Malco'm M. Brown leaves for Alexandria this morning. He has been at St. Luke's Home for some time. Mr. Brown was badly injured in an accident on the Virginia Midland-rail-road November 4, 1884, and was for a long time corridered in any articles. time considered incurable from paralysis of the spine. Under the menstration of Dr. McGuire and others at the Home, he has that the horses are near Philadelphia. been pronounced entirely cured, and leaves to-day for home to engage in business. Many friends made during his sojourn wish him all success .- Richmond Times.

MARRIAGES.—Prof.E. C. Holmes and Mrs. Mary Hammond, both of this city, were married at the residence of the bride, on Cameron street, yesterday afteruoon by Rev. J. Edwards. The marriage was private, and after the ceremony Prof. and Mrs. Holmes left on a bridal trip to Florida. Mr. Charles Zimmerman and Miss Louise Hoenstein were married last night at Christ Church parsonage by Rev. H. Suter. After the ceremony a reception was held at Mr. Henry Herbner's, which was largely at-

LAMP EXPLOSION.—The explosion of a coal oil lamp in the frame house occupied by Mr. F. J. Travers, on Prince street, between Fairfax and Royal, last night about tween Fairfax and Royal, last night about 6 o'clock, caused an alarm of fire. The burning lamp, which had been accidentally knocked over, was thrown into the street, and but little damage was done. A large crowd collected in the neighborhood, and both of the fire engines responded to the alarm.

The Proposed Parade.—A called meeting of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Co. was held last night to take into consideration the advisability of having a firemen's parade in this city on February 22d next. A committee, consisting of Messrs. A. T. Ramsay, Geo. Duffey, and Wm. Wood, was appointed to confer with committees to be tion the advisability of having a firemen's parade in this city on February 22d next. A committee, consisting of Messrs. A. T. Ramsay, Geo. Duffey, and Wm. Wood, was appointed to confer with committees to be treat in the way of a musical entertainment by the Washington Symphony Orchestra, which will ectipse anything of the kind ever given in this city. They will be assisted by Miss Kate Scott, the favorite soprano who was so favorably received here last winter, and by Miss Clara Harrison, the distinguished pianist. It is to be hoped they will be greeted with a crowded house.

Col. Mosey's Claim.—The first control-ler of the treasury has disallowed another claim of Col. John S. Mosby for a refund of fees, &c., turned into the Treasury by him while consul at Hong Kong, amounting to about six thousand dollars. The claims of Col. Mosby against the government which have been disallowed amount to about twelve thousand dollars.
